'As Time Goes By' is a concert involving over 700 music students from across eastern Melbourne in various combined bands, choirs and solos.

Actors are required to link the musical items during the concert whilst staging changes are occurring. The original concert script will revolve around the theme of music through the ages.

You must be prepared to learn your script in advance. There will be a preliminary rehearsal (time TBC) in May, a dress rehearsal on Tuesday May 2, soundcheck in Hamer Hall on the morning of Wed June 3, and the performance commencing at 7.30pm.
